Powell River Community Radio Society Update

Thank you Powell River for your continued support toward our 'Top the Tower' Funding Drive to raise $15,000 towards the moving of our broadcast tower location to Gallagher Hill. The 'Top the Tower' Campaign lives ON through our Go Fund Me site, visit <http://cjmp.ca/15k>

We raised $2,572 through various efforts including a week-long on-air and on-the-streets campaign that started with the first-ever Reuse-a-Thon on April 30th (raising almost $400 for CJMP), loads of programmer/volunteer-supported special fundraising shows (with loads of donated incentive gifts by participating businesses read more), Pop-Up Radio locations around town, and culminating on May 7th with the CJMP People's Prom

We thank our sponsors!

Little Hut Curry on Marine Avenue stepped up as well, with a special fundraising supper on May 21st, where another $375 was raised (read more). We really appreciated the great idea, the food, company and the donations! If you have a similar plan, plot or scheme for a fundraiser, let us know (604.485.0088 or email stationmanager@cjmp.ca)

New Programs and Staff at CJMP this Summer

CJMP Programmer Tony Colton is back with a new show that features peppery discussions about politics, life and music. ‘The Tony Colton Show Starring Nicholas Simons’ is on the air Wednesday evenings from 7 to 8 pm. For music, poetry and cheeky irreverence listen out for returning CJMP Programmer Captain Underpants’ new show , “Manic Mondays.” Starting soon, Monday afternoons between 1 and 2 pm . Listen Live to CJMP at cjmp.ca/listen-live or tune in at 90.1 FM. View our Program Schedule anytime!

CJMP also welcomes Ioni Waisgluss to the fold as our Summer Intern. We'll happily be seeing and hearing lots of Ioni throughout the coming months as he helps with CJMP News, hosts CJMP Happy hour (3-5Pm on Tuesdays at the station), and attends community events, as well as producing PSAs and promos for the station, and lots more! Ioni is now attending the 35th National Campus & Community Radio Conference in Ottawa.

Thank you sponsors for supporting CJMP 90.1 FM! To find out how you can sponsor Powell River Community radio go to cjmp.ca/sponsor. Many thanks to our fantastic sponsorship coordinator Bad Karen for being the go-to volunteer for CJMP sponsorships.

Sustaining CJMP

We've made it even easier than ever to sign up to be a sustaining member. For pennies a day, you can be one of CJMP's true heroes. So check it out at <http://cjmp.ca/sustain/#sign-up-now>!

You can sign up using PayPal or by setting up monthly transfers straight to our First the Society of Professional Journalists with an award for her radio documentary, "Polka's Not Dead." Carrie completed this work for KFAI Community Radio in Minneapolis, but actually completed work amongst the hibernating bears in Lund last winter. Carrie will be travelling to Minneapolis to receive the award later this month. Way to go Carrie!
